ADMISSIONS

Non-Discrimination Policy

UNAD Florida admits students of any nationality, race, ethnicity, and religious creed to all rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students. UNAD Florida does not discriminate on the basis of nationality, race, ethnicity, or religious creed in its educational policies, scholarship and loan programs, or any other program it administers.

Admission Procedures

Please make sure to have your admissions materials submitted to the School of Education by the posted deadline.

1. Apply online to the UNAD Florida Graduate School and pay the application fee. As part of the online application, you also are required to provide a statement of purpose. Your statement of goals should address the following areas: why do you want a doctoral degree, how is this going to help you meet your professional goals, what is your research interest, and how do you see this research interest meshing with the School of Education? If you are able, we also suggest including information such as a faculty member you have interacted with that could serve as your initial mentor, your interest in research as a career goal (if that is what you want to do), pre-doctoral research or employment experience that supports your goals.
2. The Graduate School also requires two letters of recommendation from professors who know the applicant as a student and can evaluate academic abilities and potential for success in a graduate program.
3. Submit all transcripts from institutions of higher education to the UNAD Florida Admissions Office (2800 Weston Road, Suite 203, Weston, FL 33331). These must be official copies from institutions of higher education.
4. Submit current vitae or resume.

Transient Students

Transient students are students who are currently enrolled at another institution and have permission from that institution to take one or more classes at UNAD Florida. These students do not intend to transfer to or seek a degree or certificate at UNAD Florida. These students are required to present the following:

1. An Application for Admission form. The completed form can be sent by email to admissions@unad.us, by fax to (954) 389-0506, or by regular mail to UNAD Florida, Graduate Admissions, 2800 Weston Rd., Suite 203, Weston, FL 33331
2. A letter from the home institution indicating that the student is in good academic standing and stating specific courses the student is being granted permission to take.
3. A $50.00 application fee (non-refundable).

Transient students accept full responsibility for possessing or acquiring, by the time of enrollment, the knowledge and skills required for successfully completing their coursework at UNAD Florida.

Transient students are responsible for requesting that an official transcript be sent to their home institutions after completion of coursework at UNAD Florida.

Transferring from UNAD Florida to another Institution

Currently, UNAD Florida is not an independently accredited institution. Therefore the acceptance of the transfer of credit to another college or university is at the discretion of the transferring school.
